

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS FOR Pharmacy Students

Leadership Development

Set yourself apart from the crowd by taking advantage of some of the leadership opportunities ICHP has to offer. Run for your student chapter's executive board. Participate on divisions, networks, committees and affiliates! Students may participate in and are a valuable part of the New Practitioners Network. Join a meeting planning committee or present a poster! Actively advocate for the profession at Pharmacy Legislative Day!

Student Specific Programs

At both the Spring and Annual Meetings we have programming directly tailored for our pharmacy students. These sessions help you prepare you for life post-graduation. Students can also participate in the NPN Mentorship program.

Residency Showcase

The Residency Showcase happens each fall as part of the ICHP Annual Meeting! This is a great opportunity for student to meet residency directors and current residents from programs across the Midwest

Pharmacy Connections

Get to know pharmacy leadership from across the state of Illinois! Participate in meetings and social events and make lasting connections with those working across the state. Take advantage of the New Practitioners Mentorship program and/or be paired with a mentor or volunteer to have an experienced member review your CV! You can also reach a large audience by writing an article for ICHP's news journal, KeePosted!

Professional Recognition

Apply for an ICHP scholarship! Help your school's student chapter reach goals to put them in the running for the student chapter leadership award! Submit a poster abstract to present! Participate in your chapter's student chapter video contest.

Stay in the know!

Each month you'll receive the ICHP News Brief - full of upcoming events, volunteer opportunities and CE programming. KeePosted, ICHP's news journal is published quarterly and includes articles from our President, EVP, and members! In addition to hearing from our division leaders, you'll get updates on upcoming legislature affecting pharmacy in Illinois, including updates from the Illinois Board of Pharmacy. ICHP keeps you up-to-date with legislative and regulatory updates and will advocate on your behalf!
